NEW HAVEN EXPERT

Secured by Mayor Dunn to Examine Smallpox Patients—Dr. F. V. Wright of New Haven Coming Today.

Wednesday forenoon Mayor Daniel P. Dunn and Corporation Counsel William A. King communicated with a number of persons relative to an expert on smallpox and after reaching County Health Officer Hoadley of New Haven received from him the name of Dr. Fred V. Wright of New Haven as an expert authority on the disease under consideration. Dr. Wright has passed through three smallpox epidemics and has been called to other cities and towns to pass upon various cases and is recommended as thoroughly familiar with the disease. Arrangements were made by the mayor and corporation counsel to have Dr. Wright come to Willimantic, and he will do so today (Thursday), arriving at 2:40 o'clock this morning. He will visit the several cases with City Health Officer Dr. W. P. S. Keating and investigate all carefully. This action of securing an expert was deemed advisable for the best interests of all.

WEDDING.

Adams-Larkin.

About fifty relatives and friends assembled at the home of ex-Representative and Mrs. Isaac G. Larkin of Lebanon Wednesday afternoon to witness the marriage of Miss Anne Larkin and Carol LeGrand Adams of Norwich. The couple entered the parlor while the wedding march from Lehengrin was played by Miss Lena Fowler, a cousin of the bride. They were preceded by two flower girls, Marjorie and Lucy Sherman of Windham, and the bride, carrying pink and white carnations. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Eugene B. Smith of Lebanon. The bride wore a gown of blue satin and carried a white rose. Following the ceremony a reception was held and a buffet lunch was served. The bride received many beautiful gifts, including silver, china, cut glass, linen and a piano from her father. The third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larkin and is a graduate of the Windham high school with the class of 1932. For the past four years she has been a bookkeeper for the American Thread company of this city. The groom is the son of George F. Adams of Norwich and for several years has been a successful electrician.

Guests were present from Lebanon, Norwich, Windham and Willimantic. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Adams will reside at 165 Broadway, Norwich, where they will be at home after April 10.

DR. BOOKER T. WASHINGTON

Tendered Reception at First Congregational Church—Following Supper, Talks on Work at Tuskegee.

A cordial reception was tendered Dr. Booker T. Washington, D.D., at the First Congregational church Wednesday evening from 6 until 8:30 o'clock. A large number of the city's representative prominent men and women and great the distinguished educator, the executive head of Tuskegee institute, and to welcome him to Willimantic and the church.

At 6:30 o'clock the brotherhood of the church entertained Mr. Washington and the members of the church club at a supper that was served by the ladies of the church. The report was a satisfying one, heartily relished by all.

After supper the members adjourned to the auditorium of the church which was filled with members of the parish, old and young, together with many of the townspeople, who listened to an able lecture delivered by Mr. Washington, who outlined his life's history briefly and then told of the work being done at the institute and the work yet to be done.

Mr. Washington's every word was closely followed by his hearers, who had looked forward to the opportunity of meeting and hearing him.

ROCK BAND CONCERT.

Something New and Novel in Music

Pleasant Big Audience at Baptist Church.

Wednesday evening in the First Baptist church there was a large audience one of the most pleasant and pleasing concerts enjoyed by a local audience in many years. The concert was given by the Rock Band Concert company, which is the only rock band in the world. Popular selections were played on that most remarkable of musical instruments, the rockophone. The sound of the famous free trader, once told a friend, "If I had left my money in the Savings Bank I would be worth a great deal more."

DAVID A. WELLS

Evidently he made some investments that did not turn out profitably. Thousands upon thousands have had the same experience. Mr. Wells probably had an acquaintance with as many men of affairs in his day as any citizen of the country, so if he would have been "worth a great deal more," isn't it a good plan for you to leave your money in the savings bank.

This bank solicits deposits and guarantees the depositors a safe, sane and conservative management, according to law.

Savings banks can only invest in such securities as stipulated by law.

BOUGHT BY JUDGE STORRS.

Land and Buildings Known as the Lucy Sherman Estate.

Wednesday afternoon Judge L. J. Storrs of Springfield, Mass., purchased the land and buildings known as the Lucy Sherman estate at the corner of Valley and Church streets, running through to Temple street, at the present time and for several years past owned by the Willimantic Lumber & Coal Co. The heirs of the estate are Charles C. Sherman and J. Roberts of New York city, Dumont Kingsley of Hartford and Mrs. Ellen J. Noyes, widow of Charles H. Noyes, C. Winfield Noyes of this city, son of one of the heirs, has had the management of the estate a number of years. The property comprises a large piece of land and several large lumber sheds and other structures. Judge Storrs is president of the lumber company, that succeeded the late G. S. Nason in the same line of business. The papers in the transaction were passed at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Attorney Thomas J. Kelley acting for Judge Storrs and Attorney Curtis Dear for the Sherman heirs. Charles C. Sherman of New York was present during the transaction. The consideration of the transfer was not mentioned, but it is one of the largest transfers of property recently made in the city.

VALUABLE BOOK.

Public Library Secures the Brady-Miller Photographic History of the War.

The Willimantic public library has recently added to its shelves the latest volume Photographic History of the Civil War. These photographs were taken by Matthew Brady in 1861-65, and he was the first man in the world to actually photograph a war.

After peace had been declared and in the reconstruction period that followed, these photographs were lost temporarily and Brady died in poverty and despair. Now nearly all have been gathered together in these ten volumes and with an explanatory text edited by Francis Prevaux Miller, in which government records have been followed as closely as possible, are now available for general reading.

Danderine

Grows hair and we can prove it

Hair Becomes Soft, Fluffy, Lustrous and Beautiful Immediately After a Danderine Hair Cleanse

Get a 25 Cent Bottle Now and Forever Stop Falling Hair, Itching Scalp and Dandruff

A little Danderine now will immediately double the beauty of your hair—No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Try as you will after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it, if you will just try a little Danderine. Real surprise awaits you.
